++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy and damp at first, drier and brighter later.

Today:
A rather cloudy and murky morning, with low cloud, mist, fog and the odd spot of drizzle. However, it will gradually become drier and brighter for many through the afternoon. Generally very mild for December, with light winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Becoming rather cloudy and murky again overnight, with low cloud, mist and some fog patches forming in places. Possibly some clearer breaks developing towards the north. Generally mild for most. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Wednesday:
A mostly cloudy day, with some light rain and drizzle at times, although there will probably be some breaks in the cloud to give some brighter spells. Very mild. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Becoming more settled. However, rather cloudy for many, with some light rain and drizzle, mainly on hills. Some brighter or clearer spells throughout, with overnight patchy frost and fog possible.
